Local Attorney Receives Highest National Rating

RIVERHEAD, NY – Kathryn Dalli, an associate with the Riverhead law firm, Twomey, Latham, Shea, Kelley, Dubin & Quartararo LLP, has recently received the prestigious Martindale-Hubbell “AV” peer review rating. The highest national rating for legal ability and general ethical standards, this rating recognizes attorneys for the highest level of skill, integrity, and professional excellence.

Experience

Ms. Dalli has been practicing law since 1983 when she was admitted to the New York State Bar. Since then her law practice has been concentrated in general business law, with an emphasis on real estate transactions, business transactions, commercial litigation, entertainment and intellectual property law, and corporate law. She has considerable experience serving business clients in a variety of matters, including complex commercial litigation and appellate work, business transactions, trademark and copyright, employment issues, and counseling clients in litigation avoidance.

Education

Ms. Dalli earned her Juris Doctorate degree from Southwestern University School of Law in Los Angeles, California, and shortly after returned to the New York area, where she grew up, to practice law. She attended the State University College at Fredonia, where she graduated cum laude with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology and a minor in music. She also attended the University of Pisa in Italy, where she studied art, opera, literature and Italian. Ms. Dalli is admitted to practice law in the U.S. District Courts, Southern and Eastern Districts, and the U.S. Second Circuit Court of Appeals.
