East End Law Firm Names New Partner

RIVERHEAD, NY – Twomey, Latham, Shea, Kelley, Dubin & Quartararo is pleased to announce that Lisa Clare Kombrink has been named a partner of the Riverhead based law firm.

Lisa Clare Kombrink, Partner

Ms. Kombrink returns to the firm as a partner after 17 years in government service and as the owner of her own law firm. She continues her practice in land use and zoning, agricultural and open space conservation, municipal law, land use and environmental litigation, real estate, and matters in the public interest.

She served as Town Attorney for the Town of Southampton, NY from 1996 – 1999 and Village Attorney for the Village of Sag Harbor, NY from 2003 – 2007. She has represented the Town of Southold as Special Counsel since 2002. She is a member of the Suffolk County Bar Association, and has appeared as a guest lecturer at the Suffolk Academy of Law, the New School for Social Research, Long Island University and Siena Spirituality Center at Villa Maria. She has appeared on CNN, CBS Morning News, Court TV and Public Access TV.

Ms. Kombrink graduated from the Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law in 1983, where she served as Notes and Comments Editor of the Cardozo Law Review. She received a B.A. in English from Illinois State University in 1977, with High Honors. Ms. Kombrink lives in Southampton Village with her husband and son.
